Hello!

We are Silicon Valley Next Talent (SVNT), an early talent program focused on hiring Designers, Developers, and Data Scientists (as full time employees) at SAP. We provide a rotational experience to start and launch your careers.

As you reflect on how you'll kickstart your career, we invite you to an exclusive event the SVNT community has lined up for you.

Silicon Valley Next Talent (SVNT) Info Session on August 14th:

> Want a job? Interested in joining SAP full time as a developer, designer, or data scientist? Learn about the Silicon Valley Next Talent Program and our offerings. Join Joseph Ham and Caitie Sullivan from the SVNT Leadership Team as they speak to SAP as a company, the SVNT program structure, what to expect as an SVNTer, and the application process.
>
> Those who join will have a leg up in getting hired…You won't want to miss it!
>
> - Zoom Link for Event Here: SAP & SVNT Info Session

We thank you for your curiosity and we hope to spark your continued exploration of the many offerings at SAP.

Thanks and see you soon!
